Problem Solved

I called flooring solutions to lay some flooring I had supplied into a new bathroom. After problems with the floor I supplied Mark and his guys really came through and fitted a fantastic floor, the fault was with my flooring but they went out of their way to put right my problem. Great job many thanks.

Commercial Flooring

A very professional company who were a pleasure to deal with and provided an excellent service with promptness and a smile. Mark and his team were a pleasure to do business with. Provided advice on different types of flooring suitable for my Dental Practice. Would definately use them again.

‘ECO of London Ltd has no hesitation in recommending Flooring Solutions London Ltd for flooring works. They consistently execute their contracts with us to the highest standard with the professionalism required. Mark Ruddy, Director, is always amenable, proficient and knowledgeable and a pleasure to work with.’

Hi Mark

Just a quick enquiry on two points. I am planning at some point to have a minor refurb & having had such a fantastic job done last time I would obviously be requiring your services again to replace the bar flooring.

In the meantime however I am hopeful of tiling the ladies toilets & would therefore need to have the same flooring laid as in the gents so wondered if you would call in & let me know how much this would cost.

The other point is.... I don't know if you took much notice of the covering that is on the top of the bar surface, but it is like a form of lino. I therefore wondered if you took on this type of work.

Kind regards

Siobhan Humphrey
